

Big Ideas

in learning disabilities and society

Understanding the theories that shape our lives

A unique, inclusive course for social science, education and social work students, including students with learning disabilities

What do Marx, Spivak, Freire and Foucault have to do with disability? Join us and find out!

Learn about 10 major thinkers and ideas

Work in inclusive study partnerships

Explore real-life experiences using big ideas

Present your learning in your own format
- video, drama, drawing or story

Taught over two semesters in 2-hour weekly sessions

In person at UEL | 4 Nov 2026 to 26 April 2027

University of
East London

