

Moving On Up!

Using RIX Multi Me software to support smooth transitions

Thursday 16 June | 11am-12.30pm | Book online

Agenda (This event is online on Microsoft Teams)

- 11.00 ▶ Welcome - Andy Minnion, Director of the RIX Centre

- 11.15 ▶ Transition to adulthood Case study 1

Jeannie Donald McKim, Lifeskills Coordinator at Abingdon & Witney College, joins the students to share their experience of using RIX and Multi Me software to make effective transitions from college into adult life in the community

- 11.30 ▶ Showcase of the RIX and Multi Me tools

Charlie Levinson, Director of Multi Me and a RIX partner, provides an overview of our accessible digital tools that can help you achieve successful transitions

- 11.45 ▶ Transition in adult care Case study 2

Parent Carer Rosemary Burslem and Carly Morrissey, Regional Manager for MacIntyre Charity, share their account of using the software to help manage a successful transition to a new home and a new provider service for David, an adult with complex support needs

- 12.15 ▶ Q&A and discussion

An opportunity for you to ask questions and share best practice with colleagues from other organisations

- 12.25 ▶ Closing words - Andy Minnion

- 12.30 ▶ Finish

- 1.30-4.30 ▶ Software Surgery - delegates can book specialist advice sessions with RIX and Multi Me experts

